

COUNTY FAIR HUMAN RESOURCES

Consider how each of these individuals can assist in your county fair planning.

Program Planning And Execution

FFA Advisor & Members

Build leadership skills by volunteering to facilitate lessons and partnering with the county Farm Bureau to execute programming.

State Promotion and Education Committee Members

Serve as a resource for programming ideas, advice on where to obtain resources, mentor for county volunteer or project execution.

Nebraska Farm Bureau Regional Managers

Serve in an advisory capacity to encourage volunteer engagement throughout planning and execution of event.

Content Experts And Volunteers

County Farm Bureau Board of Directors

Serve as volunteers, help with planning, be a resource for farm tours, etc.

State Young Farmer and Rancher Committee Members

Give advice about where to obtain resources and assist in volunteering.

Nebraska Farm Bureau Board of Directors

Provide expert advice on agriculture and serve as support through attendance.

Educational Content Support

Nebraska Farm Bureau Foundation Staff

Assist in event planning by making recommendations for grade appropriate activities and resources.

Local teachers, school board members, administrators, ag society, or fair board

Investigate ways to partner to bring agricultural lessons into classrooms in your community. Consider asking Farm Bureau members with school-aged children to share resources or program opportunities with their students' teachers.